S.S.C. Delegates Attend Convention; Chance, Parrott Conduct Discussions

Delegates of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart represented S.S.C. at the convention held at the Sacred Heart Scholasticate in Mobile December 2.

Accompanying Donald Smith, chairman of the delegation, were Viard Vidrine, Sandy Parrott, Richard Chance, Paul Aucoin, Mike Mashburn, George Rick and Brother Celestine, moderator of the Confraternity.

Discussions on Christian worship, personal responsibility, materialism and human respect developed the theme of the convention "Leadership in the Present World Crisis Through Catholic Action."

During the convention Donald Smith headed a committee that critically analyzed the working of the Confraternity in the schools conducted by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart.

Using as references the works of James Keller, You Can Change the World and A Spiritual Reader compiled by Francis Nuget, Richard Chance and Sandy Parrott led discussions in the areas of human respect and materialism.

Chance discusses Human Respect

Richard explained the following points:

"We Catholics are gifted people. At Baptism we all received the gifts of the Holy Ghost. And we have made some use of them, or we would not be what we are today.

"It takes some wisdom, knowledge, counsel and understanding to be even a mediocre member of our Faith. But it takes fortitude to live a truly Catholic life in a world that is materialistic, and in a country that loves every form of freedom true and false.

"We all have a love for our Faith since the Holy Ghost also blessed us with the gift of piety. It is in our willingness to live our Faith that we use the other gift of the Holy Spirit—fear of the Lord.

"Our life will be a failure if we fail to realize the gifts that are ours. There are too many people around us who have never really known or appreciated their God-given talents. That is why so many Catholics are only mediocre, simply good people when they should be apostles of the Faith.

"It is only through our personal holiness and active practical zeal that we shall have the courage to stand out in the crowd and be those apostles of the Faith when human respect would try to influence us to tag along rather than lead.

"Human respect may be defined as the tendency to be overly concerned about the opinion of others in matters of principle or duty. In matters where we may not or should not permit others to influence our actions.

"We should not permit human respect to prevent our developing personal holiness. This is where piety, love of God and fortitude will help us to do what we know we must do.

"It is through the Holy Mass, Holy Communion, and daily spiritual exercises that we shall develop that strength of character that will enable us to live our life as we should.

"It is in the classroom, on the campus, in our social life and in our home life that we must put into action the Faith that is ours. However narrow our field of activity, our actions and ideas can influence those with whom we come in contact, and make them better people for having known, worked and lived with us."

PARROTT LEADS DISCUSSION

Sandy Parrott elaborated upon the following:

"Materialistic influences are those things which tend to twist and prevent our sense of values so that we place a higher value on temporal things than on spiritual things.

"These materialistic influences are spread, especially in America, by less than one percent of the people. These people invariably make it their business to become associated with one of the four influential spheres of activity which sway the majority of the people.

"These fields include education, government, labor management and writing. The latter includes newspapers, magazines, books, radio, television and motion pictures.

"Obviously, the field which does the most moral damage today is writing. Today, newspapers, magazines, movies and television are so cluttered with materialistic ideas that we cannot help but be influenced by these as we go about our daily lives.

Leading the Senior B Class are officers Phil Fasullo, vice-president; Donald Smith, president; A. W. Bologna, treasurer; and Mike Morrison, secretary.

Grammar Graders Take Part In the Boy Savior Youth Movement

Grammar grades were inducted into the St. Stanislaus Chapter of the Boy Savior Regiment Dec. 5, in a ceremony conducted in the college chapel.

The Reverend Michael Kelly, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, representing the national director of the Boy Savior Regiment Corps of America, received the candidates into the society.

Father blessed the society pins, presented them, and spoke briefly on the obligations and privileges of the society.

Permanent officers of the chapter will be elected at the next meeting held. The members are expected to wear their communion badges on those days when the chapter attend Mass as a group.

Enrolled in the society were Eighth graders: Frank Lagarde, Charles Brown, James DeBlanc, Nick Witcher, Walter Antin and Joe Zito.

Seventh graders: John Atwood, Joseph Brocato, William Boyne, Charles Boudreaux, Craig Christopher, Anthony DiLeo, James Garrity, John Hill, Kevin Keenan, John Laney, Mario Lovisa, Jeffrey Meaden, Paul Miranne, Stephen Mc Carthy, Greg Neyrey, Michael O' Leary, Fernando Prado, Michael Sheenan and John Spellman.

Sixth graders: Michael Bird, Leo DiBenedetto, Barry Favre, Shawn Favre, Michael Ferry, Gregory Garcia, Ronnie Genin, John Heath, Raymond Heitzmann Anthony Ladner, Curtis Ladner, Sylvan Ladner, Jack Leary, Terry Markel, Gregory Presnell, Charles Poolson, M.J. Rhodes, Keene Rauxet, J. Rosato, Michael Ryan and Jackie Suezeneau.

Fifth graders; Malcom Cowand, Robert De la Garza, George Huth, Keith Ladner, Stanford Ladner, Richard Ledet, Gregory Mayfield, Dan O'Leary, Dennis Raymond and Kenneth Scott.

Brother Roderic co-ordinates the activities of the chapter, the other grammar school Brothers moderate individual class groups.

It is the purpose of the society to strenghten in its members the conviction that the Boy Savior is God, but that He grew also as a real Boy.

Members are expected to model their lives after that of their Captain, performing acts of obedience, reverence and kindness in imitation of the Boy Savior.

Candidates accepted this challenge in pledging allegiance to the Boy Savior during the induction ceremony:

"I pledge allegiance to the Boy Savior, my Captain. To Him I offer every thought, word and action in humble reparation. I promise obedience to lawful authority and kindness to my companions, so that, growing in years, I may grow also in grace before God and men."

Program Heralds The Holiday Season

Shortly before the holidays, December 19 and 20, the S.S.C. band will present its winter music program.

Performances will be conducted for the Stanislaus students, the St. Joseph Academy students, and for parents and friends.

Musical selections on the program include the marches "Summit", "Our Director", and "Fort Gay." The overture "Ambition" was presented together with the old favorites: "Our Favorite Rag" "By the Light of the Silvery Moon" "Shine on Harvest Moon", "Silent Night" and "Jingle Bells."

Alumni Association Choose Officers

Earle J. Christenberry, Jr. was elected by acclamation president of the Saint Stanislaus Alumni Association at its annual meeting, Sunday, November 19, as part of homecoming activities.

Berchmans Wilbert, '23, was chosen first vice president, while other officers are as follows: William App, Jr., '61 second vice president, and Brother Athanasius, S.C., secretary-treasurer.

Elected to the executive committee were A. J. Brady, '27; Lawrence Vallon, '31; Curtis Matherne, '33; Joseph H. Plunkett, '27; Robert Lobrando, '61; Arthur Scafide, Jr., '45; John Scafide, '29; Michael Irwin, '16; Joseph Colson, '30; J. Van Cloustere, '34; William Foster, '31; and A. J. Glover, '30.

William Foster, former Alumni President, conducted the business meeting.

During the meeting a minute of silent prayer was held for Brothers Casimir, William, and Alvin, former teachers of S.S.C. who died in the last year.

Out-going officers of the association were William Foster, '31, president; Earle Christenberry, Jr., '45, first vice president; and A. J. Glover, '30, second vice president.

Senior Philip Fasullo Receives Student of the Month Award

Completing his senior year, Philip Fasullo's interest and cooperation in school activities earns him this month's leader of the month award.

In addition to taking his studies seriously, Phil finds time to take part in campus activities and sports.

Vice-president of the senior division of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart, he is also chairman of the Sacred Heart committee of the Confraternity.

Phil also holds the office of vice-president of his senior class.

Writing for the paper for the past two years, this year he is associate sports editor. During his junior year he was a reporter on the staff.

With the homecoming game, Phil ended three years of action on the varsity football squad. A letterman, he filled the position of halfback . He played on the junior varsity team during his freshman year.

This year as for the past two years, Phil will represent S.S.C. on the varsity track team in the high hurdles competition.

During his freshman year he was a cheerleader and a member of the freshman pep squad.

Enthusiastic and capable, Phil has been a boarder at S.S.C. for four years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Fasullo, Sr. of New Orleans, Louisiana.

Alegrias Y Tristezas Latinos

By Jorge Casares

El momento que todos esperaban esta cerca. Este momento es el 20 de diciembre y este es tan anciado ya que casi todos iran a su tierra querida.

Pare las Navidades los comaneros—D. Alvarez, Roland Mora y Joe Merren piensan ir a New Orleans; Ed Hernandez, y Pete Dabdoub a Mexico; Fred Gruber y Juan De Dianous a Panama; Jorge Casares a la Argentina; Jun Caso a Guatemala; Annibal Bouragnani a Miami; Richard Pastor y Albert Lacombe a Baton Rouge; y Johnny Saravanja a Honduras.

Entra toda la alegria, hay un poco de tristeza, a causa de la suspension del Baile de Navidad. La noticia fue reciente y no se ha podido averiguar la razon, pero nos imaginamos que fue por causa justa.

Para las vacaciones de Thanksgiving hubo varias decepciones pues las cosas para algunis no salieron comofueron planeadas.

Ed Hernandez no pudo ir a Jackson a visitar a una cierts rubia del convento y para el final de su desgracia, ni siquiera pudo salir del colegio. el no fue el unico pues Annibal Boucagnani, "Pando" Mora, "Guapo" Gruber y "Guineos" Merren le hicieron compania.

De todas las fiestas que Juan Caso y Lacombe planearon solamente se pudo hacer una. La causa porque las otras fracasaron ha quedado en secreto, pero rumeres dcen que por las muchachas.

Waldo Caceres no quiere ser heroe solamente en futbol, pero tambien esta jugando al basket y si juega como jugo el ano pasado, este ano sera muy bueno.

Quisiera extender mis felicicidades y las de todos los muchachos para desearles unas "Felices Pascuas Y Un Prospero Ano Nuevo."

Promoting the sale of religious greeting cards, Confraternity members Joseph Vallee and Carroll Neyrey have their first customers Danny Lacour and Miss Barbara Monti. (Left to right, beginning third person.)

Do We Have Xmas Spirit?

At the present time with more and more of Communistic activity and the complex problems of so many countries of our world, the spirit of Christmas is slowly becoming obsolete.

In our very own country commercialism and the vast drive for sales on Christmas presents have dimmed the real spirit of the season.

If people at this time would resolve to renew old friendships, let all controversy and bitterness be forgotten and come forward with "Peace on earth" then they would have taken steps towards reviving the true meaning of Christmas celebration.

In place of the wild hysteria of gift-unwrapping, feasting and drinking, how much better a world this would be if we made Christmas a day of prayer and paid heed to the Angelic message: "Peace on earth toward men of good will."

Around the Campus

with Donald Smith

Brother Hugh, president, Brother Roland, principal of Cor Jesu, and Brother Mark, principal of McGill Institute attended the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools Convention held in Miami. The convention was held during the first week of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mashburn of Hammond were hosts to the varsity football squad at a barbecue given on December 10. The Mashburns have graciously entertained the team this year as in several previous years.

Everyone has been taking part in a Novena in preparation for the Holy Feast of Christmas by concluding morning prayers with a novena prayer. The last nine days of school have been the prescribed days for this novena.

Assisting at the Mass and Holy Communion each morning has been recommended as part of the novena.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit a crib has been bulit on the front lawn. As in past years the crib will be lighted at night to illuminate the manger.

With so many letters floating around the student body quite a few interesting things have happened. But among all those sweetheart notes, the description charts make for the most amusing reading.

Alumni Notes

Members of the S.S.C. Alumni Association held their annual meeting homecoming day, Nov. 19. Officers for the '61-'62 sessions were elected.

Mr. William Foster, presiding president, presented a revised code of by laws for adoption by the members present.

Among the alumni present were: Cyril Glover, '22; Berchmans Wilbert, '23; Alden Mayffray, '24; John A. Egloff, '26; A. J. Brady, '27; George Seuzeneau, Jr., '27; J. H. Plunkett, '27; Warren Carver, '29.

Alvin Genin, '29; John Scafide, '29; A. J. Glover, '30; Bill Foster, '31; Lawrence Vallon, 31; Curtis Matherne, '33; J. Van Cloustere, '34; Billy App, '35; Osmond Blaize, '31; Joe Colson, '39; J. H. Benvenutti, '40; Robert Champagne, '44; Brother Ramon, '47.

Anthony Pitalo, '48; Bruce Favre, '51; Billy Rhodes, '57; Abelardo Caceres, '58; Douglas Black, '59; James Riordan, '60; Gerry Black, '60; Richard Morreale, '60; Robert Morrison, '60; Louis Jacobi, '61; Billy App, Jr., '61; Prieur Leary, '61; and A. J. Scafide, '45.

Contributions to the St. Stanislaus Band drive either by money or by new or used instruments was also suggested at the meeting.

As A Team We Can Do It

Today, with paralytic polio rapidly diminishing as a public health problem, the March of Dimes Foundation is redoubling the search for knowledge to aid victims of other crippling diseases.

Rehabilitating the 25,000 polio victims who continue to need assistance is still a big part of the work of the National Foundation Chapters. But the knowledge and experience acquired in the polio fight have enabled it to take on another enormous problems of disease that have defied solution since the beginning of time.

New targets are birth defects and arthritis. The March of Dimes "team" proved that polio could be controlled. And it is determined to fine causes and cures and preventives for birth defects and arthritis, and to bring modern medical care and treatment to those already afflicted.

Using techniques developed through 24 years of intensive experience both with the immediate problems of the disabled and the long-range problems of scientific research, the National Foundation has organized its forces on local and national levels.

Supported by contributions to the March of Dimes, medical workers and chapter volunteers are teaming up to create special treatment centers where victims of birth defects and arthritis receive total medical care and treatment to those already afflicted.

At the same time, a wide network of Clinical Study centers is being established by the national officers of the March of Dimes organization to do research as well as focus intensive study upon patient problems in each of the three problem areas—birth defects, arthrits, and polio.

Here will be developed the techniques and the tools to eliminate the wastage of human life through crippling.

Meanwhile, other members of the team are at work in the nation's laboratories, probing the mysterious world of microscopic virtuses and human cells, adding to the mountain of new scientific knowledge already accumulated in the fight against polio, bringing closer the day when arthritis and birth defects will be listed among the health problems which man has learned to control.

The partnership of the American people, the scientist and the physician is a formidable team. It has worked near miracles in the past. And it will do it again. Do your part in this great team of workers—support the 1962 March of Dimes Campaign.

2nd Term Honor Students

Congratulations to the honor students of the second term.

Names printed in bold type indicate those who were also honor students of the previous term.

Requirements are that a student maintain all grades above 85 points with an average of 90 percent.

At the end of the year, honor roll students for five terms will receive a jacket and letter. Honor roll students for four terms will receive a letter.

For those of us who like to see lead fly, you best wear a bullet proof vest to see "The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond". This screen gem shows how Legs Diamond became the king of the underworld through his great ability or luck in avoiding a loose flying bullet.

Another shooting match comes to us in "Armored Command".

This is modern in weapons, methods, and style.

For our Biblical films, soon to be seen is "David and Goliath". The film unfolds the story of David, the boy, who killed Goliath, and later ruled the Jewish Nation.

A newcomer is "Grayfriars Bobby". Here Walt Disney unleases another matinee idol. This film is about the Skye terrier who, a century ago, won the freedom of the ctiy of Edinburgh.

Leading the platter poll is "Moon River" by Terry Butler. Second is Chris Kenner's "Something You Got". And bringing up third place is Linda Scott and "I Don't Know Why".

Among the new novels on the campus is "The Braintree Mission" by Nicolas E. Wychoff. A narrative novel of what might have happened had John Adams not been the man he was.

Next in line is "No Time for sergeants" by Mac Hyman, which is the wildly humorous escapades of Will Stockdale and Little Ben Whitely.

Newest of the novels is "Tristram's Salvation" by William R. Bird. It is the story of the Crabtree family — strong, stubborn people with tempers that could erupt at any moment into terrifying rage.

A thrilling account of what happened on Sunday, December 7, 1941, the day the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and how it was planned is "Day of Infamy" by Walter Lord.

Christians Throughout The World Join To Await The Birth of Christ Dec. 25

Christians throughout the world are preparing for the Birth of Christ, Dec. 25.

Despite tensions which threaten to erupt into an international calamity, the birth of a small Child into the hearts of men could effect a peace that would salve the wounds of a torn world.

We turn to St. Luke, the Evangelist, for the "good news" that though centuries old, yet retains its freshness and promise of hope to those who will but seek to find happiness with the Prince of Peace.

She brought forth her first born whom she laid in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

It happened that a decree went out at this time from the Emperor Augustus, enjoining that the whole world should be registered.

This register was the one first made during the time when Cyrinus was governor of Syria.

All must go and give in their names, each in his own city;

And Joseph, being of David's clan and family, came to the town of Nazareth, in Galilee, to David's city in Judea, the city called Bethlehem, to give hs name there.

With him was his espoused wife, Mary who was then in her pregnancy.

And it was while they were still there that the time came for her delivery.

She brought forth a son, her first-born, whom she wrapped in his swaddling-clothes, and laid in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

In the same country there were shepherds, awake in the fields, keeping watches over their flock.

And all at once an angel of the Lord Came and stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, so that they were overcome with fear.

But the angel said to them, Do not be afraid; Behold, I bring you good news of a great rejoicing for the whole people.

This day in the city of David, a Saviour has been born for you, the Lord Christ himself.

This is the sign by which you are to know him; you will find a child still in swaddling-clothes, lying in a manger.

Then, on a sudden, a multitude of the heavenly army appeared to them at the angel's side, giving praise to God and saying,

Glory to God in high heaven, and peace on earth to men that are God's friends.

Caceres Receives Gridiron Trophy

Following the homecoming game on Nov. 19, which closed the 1961 Rock-A-Chaw gridiron season, fullback Waldo Caceres was named most valuable player of the season.

He was presented a trophy by Miss Elleen Plunkett, queen of the homecoming court.

During the homecoming game, Waldo ran 35 yards for the only Rock-A-Chaw touchdown of the day. Later in the game, he blocked Hahnville's try for a point after touchdown, which ended the game with a 7-6 win for the Rocks over the Tigers.

In both the St. Francis of Houma and Harrison Central games, Waldo was selected as the best back by the Sidelines Club.

During his junior year, Waldo was presented the most valuable back of the year trophy at the athletic banquet. He was also named to the "All-Catholic" Gulf Coast team during his junior year.

'62 Ring Ceremony Precedes Holidays

In the presence of parents, relatives and friends, the senior class received their class rings in the college chapel Sunday morning.

Following the blessing and presentation of the rings, the reverend Michael Kelly, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, spoke briefly to the gathered group

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the ceremony.

Confraternity Discussions

"Here we come to the basis of our problem: How can these sources of temptation and moral ruin for so many, be stamped out? What can we do to rid ourselves of these things which are working directly against us in our struggle to attain heaven?

"It is only when we have developed a sense of personal responsibility and take it upon ourselves, personally, to fight these influences that we can say that we are truly concerned with this problem.

"If we but exert ourselves we can be as influential for good as others are influential in corrupting those with whom they come in contact."

Grammar Graders

By Walter Antin

Basketball has replaced football as after-school activity among the grammar graders.

Teams have been organized among the eighth graders, the lower grades, and on-the-spot teams. The last teams play when there are no league games in progress.

Eight A displayed posters made as a class project during the last term. There were seventeen posters in all covering various fields of United States history.

Contributing to the display through their posters were: Louis Voohries, John DiFrancesco, Bill Schneider, Charles Garrity, Conrad Tabony, Alvaro Abreau, Mike Conville, Tim Mashburn, Gary Hough, Walter Antin, Donald Cavallino, Peter Licali, Andrew Tilden, Jay Schubert and Sheldon Notacher. The display was so well done that Brother Neal is planning to repeat the project again this term.

An interesting article appeared in a back issue of the Junior Catholic Messenger recently. Briefly, the article commented that the government is designing a new submarine that will be able to go down to about fifteen thousand feet in the sea.

While this is not the deepest that man has traveled in the sea, a few years back two men descended to the deepest known part of the ocean, their descent was made in an invention called the bathescaphe, their vessel was not mobile, it could not move about on the ocean floor.

Bowl Roundup

By Joe Coleman

Some of the best football teams in the country will bring to a close the 1961 gridiron season on Jan. 1.

According to their previous games, this is how I pick the bowl games.

Texas and Ole Miss should put on the best game of the day. Both teams lost only one game during the season and were co-captains of their own conference. Both teams are big and strong. The COTTON BOWL is going to be a toss up.

In the ROSE BOWL, the game could go either way. U.C.L.A. is strong but I pick Minnesota by a touchdown.

Arkansas will meet the number one team in the country, Alabama, in the SUGAR BOWL. In this one I pick 'Bama by three touchdowns.

At the ORANGE BOWL, L.S.U. with its superior running attack and powerful defense should take the game. The Tigers depth will be too much for Colorado to handle.

Rocks To Meet St. John Tonight

Tonight the St. Stanislaus Varsity will meet St. John of Gulfport in the S.S.C. gym.

Both of last year's meets with St. John were victories for Stanislaus. The Rock-A-Chaws left the first game with a 46-38 victory over St. John.

Sizeable contributions were made by Waldo Caceres who scored 2 points and Mike Gore who set us ahead 4 points.

In the second match with St. John both Gore and Caceres scored 6 points. The game completed, Stanislaus scored over St. John 54-39.
